TO CARRY OUT PETERSON'S PLAN

Fred Harrison Leases Campbell Lot on Condition to Put Up a Building.

A new downtown business structure is shortly to be erected on King street near Fort. A lease of the property belonging to the James Campbell estate between the O'Neill and the Collins buildings, Ewa of Fort street, was filed for record yesterday, one of the provisions of the lease being that a building should be erected.

The lease is to Fred Harrison, and is for the term of twenty-five years. The rental for the first five years is $300 a year, for the next five years $500 a year, and for the last ten years of the term it is to be $600 a year.

The property has a frontage on King street of 26.2 feet, and extends back to the Ehlers building. Adjoining the Collins building there is to be perpetually maintained a ten-foot alley or lane for the use of other tenants of the James Campbell estate.

Harrison agrees that within a year from September 1 he will begin the construction of a foundation of concrete, brick or stone, strong enough for a building three stories high. Within two years a one-story business building according to plans approved by the trustees of the Campbell estate must be completed substantial enough to permit of the addition of two stories if desired.

The lessee, if he desires, may extend the second and third stories of his building over the ten-foot alley reserved along the Collins building.

This is the property which was leased a year or so ago to Bert Peterson on very similar terms, the lease being forfeited a few weeks ago for non-compliance with its terms.

That Lord Brougham was fully capable of a quick retort is shown by the following: "You, my lord," said Wellington, angry with him, "will be remembered, not for having been a great lawyer nor for having written profound philosophical essays, but for having given your name to a peculiar style of carriage." "And your grace," answered Brougham, "will be remembered, not for having gained the battles of Vittoria and Waterloo, but for having given your name to a fashionable kind of boots!" "Oh!" said Wellington, "damn the boots, I forgot 'em."
